Hi Mia,

We're happy to assist but I'm not sure what type of equipment is being claimed and want to be sure this is assigned to the appropriate expert. Is this HVAC? The incident report only refers to the equipment as "units" and I can't tell from the photos.

Also, is there a claimant that we should list?

Thank you!

Deb

Good Morning,

During my initial contact with Jamie, I believe he mentioned the photos and invoice of the damaged unit/replacement costs were sent to for the claim submission.

If you have them, can you send them via this email or upload using the link below? I would like to have this sent to our expert ASAP, however the more information we have the better for assignment.

I appreciate your assistance.

Regards,
Mia

HI Mia,

Is this involving the claim that was just recently set-up? 01-09-2026 loss date? If so, did you get all of the supports submitted with the loss? I can resend if needed.

If you both would like me to set up a call, I can send out an invite?
