Good morning,

There was some apparent damage on this load that delivered in Irwindale, CA. 1st picture is loading picture, the other 5 is of the damage. It looks to just one bracket, but rough estimate to repair is $900 according to the customer. They have asked me to reach out and see if you would like to just drop the rate once we have a receipt of repairs or if you want them to just go through with a damage claim. Please let me know.
